Mrs. Sudha Murty

Mrs. Sudha Murty was born in 1950 in Shiggaon, Haveri District in North Karnataka.

She completed her engineering from BVB College of Engineering, obtained 1st rank across all branches and received a gold medal from the Institute of Engineers.

She did her ME from Indian Institute of Science with distinction and started her career as an engineer with TELCO (now Tata Motors).

Today, she is the chairperson of Infosys Foundation and has handled 13 national disasters in the last 26 years.

Her strong ties to the language and its people led her to establish more than 60,000 libraries in Karnataka.

She also strongly believes in creating awareness for social causes and has passionately travelled the world for this purpose.

She has also received seven honorary doctorates.

Some of her awards include the R.K. Narayan Award for Literature, the Padma Shri in 2006, the Attimabbe Award from the government of Karnataka for excellence in Kannada literature in 2011, and the Lifetime Achievement by Crossword Book Awards in 2018.

She lives by the belief that “Generosity of a few is hope for millions”.

Mr. Narayan Murty

Murty was born and raised in Shidlaghatta, Karnataka.

He graduated from the National Institute of Engineering, University of Mysore with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering and a master's degree from the Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur.

Before starting Infosys, Murty worked at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad as chief systems programmer, and Patni Computer Systems in Pune, Maharashtra.

He started Infosys in 1981 and was the CEO from 1981 to 2002, as well as the chairman from 2002 to 2011.

In 2011, he stepped down from the board and became the chairman emeritus. In June 2013, Murty was appointed as the executive chairman for a period of five years.

Murty has been listed among the 12 greatest entrepreneurs of our time by Fortune magazine.

He has been described as the "father of the Indian IT sector" by Time magazine and CNBC for his contribution to outsourcing in India. In 2005, he co-chaired World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland.

Murty has been honoured with the Padma Vibhushan and Padma Shri awards.
